

Write programs for

1. Implementation of proper intersection
2. Implementation of improper intersection

Create appropriate data structures for the objects. Use the concepts as discussed in the class. Your program should ask for the user input and display the outputs. The graphic visualization of the geometric objects is not mandatory however your effort for this will be appreciated.